The Mysteries and Magic of Ancient Egypt!

Egypt...

visit the ancient past in modern day luxury.

Mankind's fascination with the ancient past is seen best in Egypt where monuments and relics dating back some 5,000 years have been preserved amid modern day luxury and convenience. A treasure of wonderful memories await those who visit such awe-inspiring sights as the Sphinx and Pyramids of Giza and the spectacular cache from Tutankhamun's Tomb in the Grand Egyptian Museum. You will be thrilled with the towering Temples of Luxor and Karnak in Luxor and Abu Simbel, site of the monolithic statues of Ramses II and the giant pillared temple faced with carvings of Queen Nefertari. Wherever you go in Egypt, there are sites that will make you want to see more of this advanced civilization that was in its prime while Europe was still in its infancy.

Egypt represents antiquity with sights that have not changed in thousands of years. The people are friendly and anxious to share their heritage with you. Some of the world's finest hotels offer luxurious amenities and exquisite continental dining. Sightseeing coaches and cars are modern and air-conditioned. Berge, your private sailing yacht, ply the Nile providing royal treatment befitting Cleopatra.

C&K – Your Ultimate Hosts in Egypt!

“we simply deliver comfortable, enriching, safe and memorable journeys...”

Robert G. Cazian

Dear guests,

I am pleased to introduce C&K, your luxury Nile yachts charter in Egypt! For decades, we have successfully created and operated unique itineraries for the discerning traveler.

In 1967, I began my travel industry career in Cairo. Since then, Egypt, North Africa, and the Middle East have always been my specialty, thus, you are traveling with a knowledgeable specialist that knows the territory best and understands the culture and customs of its people. We simply deliver comfortable, enriching, safe, and memorable journeys.

In 1979, I founded R Voyages, Inc., a California travel corporation, specializing in Egypt and beyond. Throughout the years being a DMC, we professionally serviced, trained, and guided numerous North American tour companies as well as retail travel agencies. In 2022, we partnered with Kazazian Cruises, the sole luxury sailing yacht company in Egypt. The Kazazians are renowned meticulous shipbuilders. It all began in 1989 when Berge Kazazian built one of the very first cruisers to sail along the Nile River.

Thirty-two years later, his son, Armen, carries on the fine family tradition.

In 2021, “Berge” was christened – a luxury sailing yacht for those who seek a sanctuary retreat. This private yacht consists of eight suites and one-of-a-kind owner’s suite – each with scenic windows and marble bathrooms with spacious showers. The panoramic lounge with its warm and bright colors comfortably hosts 18 guests. The tastefully decorated dining room offers “A La Carte” menus with a selection of different dishes to please your palate.

“Always do right. This will gratify some people, and astonish the rest.”

Mark Twain

Our team of experts are passionate professionals. We’re not into mass tourism, nor do we offer endless destinations, we simply focus on customer satisfaction from beginning to end.

We invite you to feel the warmth and wealth of Egypt and this welcoming region. Its people are anxious to share their rich heritage with you, and you will find that generosity is their way of life, hospitality their tradition, and no one too poor to offer the gift of friendship.

Thank you for giving us the opportunity to welcome you in Egypt.

Warm regards

Robert G. Cazian

My Dear Robert,

I thank you from the bottom of my heart for the best tour – one of the best experiences – of my life.

Our Tour guide, our "Mama-Pharaoh" as I called her, Noha was, as Leon* promised us all, simply wonderful. She could not have been better. Noha is articulate, charming, knowledgeable, take-charge, and a delightful person. Abdul, your Cairo manager, was helpful at every turn. Leon* was his usual brilliant, sweet-hearted self. There was not one "snafu" which one would regularly expect while traveling in Egypt. This R Voyages Five Star Tour on a cost-per-day was a greatest value of my touring career.

Before the Tour, you were so helpful with your responsive, detailed, immediate phone calls and emails.

Please use my quotes regarding your superb service and feel free to use me as a reference in the future should anyone say that "no one can please a trial attorney".

I'm simply very, very happy with R Voyages..

Thank you so much, Robert.

Best regards,

Bill Swegles

Our Premium Tours in Cairo, Alexandria and the Oases!

Cairo – Grand Egyptian Museum

Described as the largest archaeological museum in the world, it exhibits the full collection of Tutankhamon with many pieces to be displayed for the first time. Sited on 120 acres, the complex is designed to include the latest technology.

Cairo – Pyramids, Sakkara

Cheops' Pyramid – one of the Seven Ancient Wonders of the World – and the Sphinx, the great god-lion sentinel built over 35 centuries ago. The towering pyramid stands majestically on a desert plateau with two slightly smaller pyramids (one built by Cheop's son Kephren and the other by Mycerinus) erected to preserve their bodies and treasures for the afterlife. The Necropolis of Sakkara, City of the Dead, housing the step pyramid of King Zoser and the Wall of Cobras.

Cairo – Mosques, Al Moez Street, Khan el Khalili

Al Rifai Mosque and Sultan Hassan Mosque, both are masterpieces of Mameluk architecture. They include bronze doors inlaid with gold and silver. The Mosque of Ibn Tulun, named after the founder of the Tulunid State, was built between 876 and 879 AD is one of Cairo's oldest, intact mosques characterized by its unique minaret. A walking tour along El Moez street, one of Cairo's most remarkable historic places dates back to the foundation of the city. Historically, it was the most important artery of the city and was often referred to as the Qasabah. It constituted the main axis of the city's economic zones where its markets were concentrated. The street's prestige also attracted the construction of many monumental religious and charitable buildings commissioned by Egypt's rulers and elites, making it a dense repository of historic Islamic architecture in Cairo. Much Islamic art is carved into the notable mosques and houses. In brief, you will be fascinated by the historic ambiance of old cafés, souvenir shops, Khan el Khalili bazaar and much more.

Cairo – Bent and Red Pyramids

Drive to Dahshur to discover the Bent and Red Pyramids both built by Senefru, father of Cheops, and founder of the great 4th Dynasty. The Bent Pyramid's initial angle proved too steep, therefore the engineers had to change it midway through construction. The Red Pyramid is considered to be the first true pyramid and is made of sandstone with its entrance of red stones.

Oases – Bahariya, White Desert

Set in a depression, the Bahariya Oasis is surrounded by crystal-mountains and black-hills. Its Museum houses four mummies from the Roman era. Kasr Selim Tombs; Amoun El Ankh Tomb; Banttu tomb; Ahmous II Chapel; and Alexander the Great Temple. Most of the villages and cultivated land is viewed from the top of the 50-meter-high Jebel Al-Maysarah, together with the massive dunes. Wildlife is plentiful, especially birds such as wheatears; crops include dates, olives, apricots, rice and corn. Bawiti is the largest village in the Oasis; its hillside quarter overlooks lush palm groves irrigated by Ain Al-Beshmo, a natural spring hewn from the rock in Roman times which gushes water at 30 degrees.

The second day's visit is the surreal White Desert, a place that no visitor to the New Valley should miss. This unique landscape of surreal wind-eroded rock formations is particularly magical at sunrise or sunset. A hot meal and fresh bread made in the sand Bedouin-Style is served while listening to authentic Bedouin music. Return to Bahariya for overnight.

Alexandria

The Roman Amphitheater – in Ptolemaic times this area was the Park of Pan, a pleasure garden surrounded by Roman villas and baths. Visit Pompey's Pillar and the Catacombs of Kom El Shoqafa with their 2nd century AD statues of Sobek and Anubis wearing Roman armor. End the day with a visit to the renowned Alexandria Library.

Our Shore Excursions between Luxor and Abu Simbel!

Luxor East Bank – Luxor and Karnak Temples

Luxor and Karnak Temples, a holy city of pylons, hypostyle halls, colossal statues and obelisks built over many centuries and dedicated to the city's most powerful triad: the God Amon-Ra, his consort Mut (mistress in heaven), and their son Khonsu, the moon-god. Luxor temple was built by Amenhotep III (1390–1352 BC), and even though it was embellished and expanded several times, its plan remains much simpler and more compact than the complex in Karnak. Covering about 100 acres, Karnak temple was the most important religious and intellectual center in Ancient Egypt for more than 1,500 years. Karnak was abandoned around the 4th century AD when the Egyptians turned to Christianity.

Luxor West Bank – Thebes

Explore the astonishing and extensive New Kingdom city of "Thebes" – the Valley of Kings and Queens where 64 of Egypt's Pharaohs have their palatial resting places hewn into the sheer rock; the Temple of Queen Hatshepsut, built during her reign as Pharaoh Hatshepsut of the Eighteenth Dynasty. Located opposite the city of Luxor, it is considered to be a masterpiece of ancient architecture. Its three massive terraces rise above the desert floor and into the cliffs of Deir el-Bahari; the Colossi of Memnon, two huge seated statues of Amenhotep III.

Luxor West Bank – "Optional Visits To Be Considered"

The breathtaking Tomb of Queen Nefertari – with its brilliant paintings in bright colors, the visit is worth every penny. Also the Tombs of Ramses VI, Tutankhamen and Seti.

Edfu – Temple of Horus, the falcon god

One of the best-preserved shrines in Egypt. The temple was built in the Ptolemaic Kingdom between 237 and 57 BC. The inscriptions on its walls provide important information on language, myth and religion during the Hellenistic period in Egypt. It is the second largest temple in Egypt after Karnak. Important sacred site for ancient Egyptians, as according to ancient myth this is where the falcon-headed god, Horus, fought a battle with his uncle, Seth, who had cruelly murdered Horus's father, Osiris.

Kom Ombo – Graeco Roman Temple

Standing serenely on a hilltop, the temple offers an incredible view of the Nile. About 30 miles north of Aswan it was built during the Graeco-Roman period (332 BC AD 395). This temple is unique in fact a double temple, dedicated to Sobek the crocodile god, and Horus the falcon-headed god.

view from Winston Churchill's terrace – Aswan

Aswan – Philae Temple

The shore excursion of Aswan includes Aswan's Old and High Dams, the ancient Granite Quarries, and the Temple of Philae. Originally located near the expansive First Cataract of the Nile, Philae was the site of an Egyptian temple complex. It retained significance as a Christian center even after its closure as a pagan site. Five of its temples were converted into churches (including the Temple of Isis, which was dedicated to Saint Stephen), and two purpose built churches were constructed on the north side of the island on which Philae Temple now stands.

Abu Simbel – Temples of Ramses II and Queen Nefertari

An engineering marvel, the great temple was built between 1300-1233 B.C. by Ramses II. It was dedicated to the three principle Gods of Ancient Egypt whose combined spheres of influence covered the entire land: Ptah, God of the underworld as he was worshiped in Memphis; Amon-Ra, patron God of Thebes; and Ha-Rakhte, a form of the Sun God Horus, worshiped at Heliopolis. At the entrance to the Temple are four colossal statues of Ramses II in a seated position, each over 65 feet high. On the south wall is an inscription of the first Treaty of Peace between the Egyptians and the Hittites – the first treaty of its kind in recorded history.
